9 Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute verbatim copies
10 of this license document, but changing it is not allowed.
11
12             Preamble
13
14 The licenses for most software are designed to take away your 15 freedom to share and change it. By contrast, the GNU General Public
16 License is intended to guarantee your freedom to share and change free
17 software--to make sure the software is free for all its users. This 18 General Public License applies to most of the Free Software
19 Foundation's software and to any other program whose authors commit to 20 using it. (Some other Free Software Foundation software is covered by 21 the GNU Lesser General Public License instead.) You can apply it to 22 your programs, too.
23
24 When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, not 25 price. Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that you 26 have the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge for 27 this service if you wish), that you receive source code or can get it
28 if you want it, that you can change the software or use pieces of it
29 in new free programs; and that you know you can do these things.
30
31 To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbid
32 anyone to deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights.
33 These restrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if you
34 distribute copies of the software, or if you modify it.
35
36 For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whether 37 gratis or for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights that 38 you have. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the 39 source code. And you must show them these terms so they know their 40 rights.
41
42 We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright the software, and 43 (2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy,
44 distribute and/or modify the software.
45
46 Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certain 47 that everyone understands that there is no warranty for this free
48 software. If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, we 49 want its recipients to know that what they have is not the original, so
50 that any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the original 51 authors' reputations.
52

53 Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by software
54 patents. We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a free 55 program will individually obtain patent licenses, in effect making the 56 program proprietary. To prevent this, we have made it clear that any 57 patent must be licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all.
58

59 The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution and 60 modification follow.

62 GNU GENERAL PUBLIC LICENSE
63 TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION
64

65 0. This License applies to any program or other work which contains 66 a notice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributed
67 under the terms of this General Public License. The "Program", below,
68 refers to any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program"
69 means either the Program or any derivative work under copyright law:
70 that is to say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it,
71 either verbatim or with modifications and/or translated into another 72 language. (Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation in 73 the term "modification".) Each licensee is addressed as "you".
74

75 Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are not 76 covered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act of 77 running the Program is not restricted, and the output from the Program 78 is covered only if its contents constitute a work based on the 79 Program (independent of having been made by running the Program).
80 Whether that is true depends on what the Program does.
81

82 1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Program's 83 source code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you
84 conspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate 85 copyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all the 86 notices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty;
87 and give any other recipients of the Program a copy of this License
88 along with the Program.
89

90 You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, and 91 you may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee.
92

93 2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portion 94 of it, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy and
95 distribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1
96 above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions:
97

98 a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent notices
99 stating that you changed the files and the date of any change.
100

101 b) You must cause any work that you distribute or publish, that in 102 whole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or any 103 part thereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all third
104 parties under the terms of this License.
105

106 c) If the modified program normally reads commands interactively
107 when run, you must cause it, when started running for such 108 interactive use in the most ordinary way, to print or display an 109 announcement including an appropriate copyright notice and a 110 notice that there is no warranty (or else, saying that you provide 111 a warranty) and that users may redistribute the program under 112 these conditions, and telling the user how to view a copy of this 113 License. (Exception: if the Program itself is interactive but 114 does not normally print such an announcement, your work based on 115 the Program is not required to print an announcement.)
116

117 These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. If

118 identifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program, 119 and can be reasonably considered independent and separate works in 120 themselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to those 121 sections when you distribute them as separate works. But when you 122 distribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work based 123 on the Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms of 124 this License, whose permissions for other licensees extend to the 125 entire whole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it.

126

127 Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contest 128 your rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is to 129 exercise the right to control the distribution of derivative or 130 collective works based on the Program.

131

132 In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Program
133 with the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume of 134 a storage or distribution medium does not bring the other work under 135 the scope of this License.

136

137 3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it, 138 under Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms of 139 Sections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following:

140

141 a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readable
142 source code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections
143 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,

144

145 b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least three 146 years, to give any third party, for a charge no more than your 147 cost of physically performing source distribution, a complete
148 machine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to be 149 distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium
150 customarily used for software interchange; or,

151

152 c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offer 153 to distribute corresponding source code. (This alternative is 154 allowed only for noncommercial distribution and only if you
155 received the program in object code or executable form with such 156 an offer, in accord with Subsection b above.)

158 The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work for 159 making modifications to it. For an executable work, complete source 160 code means all the source code for all modules it contains, plus any 161 associated interface definition files, plus the scripts used to 162 control compilation and installation of the executable. However, as a 163 special exception, the source code distributed need not include
164 anything that is normally distributed (in either source or binary 165 form) with the major components (compiler, kernel, and so on) of the 166 operating system on which the executable runs, unless that component
167 itself accompanies the executable.

168

169 If distribution of executable or object code is made by offering
170 access to copy from a designated place, then offering equivalent 171 access to copy the source code from the same place counts as 172 distribution of the source code, even though third parties are not 173 compelled to copy the source along with the object code.

174

175 4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Program
176 except as expressly provided under this License. Any attempt 177 otherwise to copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program is 178 void, and will automatically terminate your rights under this License.
179 However, parties who have received copies, or rights, from you under 180 this License will not have their licenses terminated so long as such 181 parties remain in full compliance.

182

183 5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have not 184 signed it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify or 185 distribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions are 186 prohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, by 187 modifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on the 188 Program), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, and 189 all its terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifying
190 the Program or works based on it.

192 6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any work based on the 193 Program), the recipient automatically receives a license from the 194 original licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject to 195 these terms and conditions. You may not impose any further
196 restrictions on the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein.
197 You are not responsible for enforcing compliance by third parties to 198 this License.

199
200 7. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or allegation of patent 201 infringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues), 202 conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement or 203 otherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do not 204 excuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannot 205 distribute so as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under this 206 License and any other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence you
207 may not distribute the Program at all. For example, if a patent 208 license would not permit royalty-free redistribution of the Program by 209 all those who receive copies directly or indirectly through you, then 210 the only way you could satisfy both it and this License would be to 211 refrain entirely from distribution of the Program.

213 If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable under 214 any particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended to 215 apply and the section as a whole is intended to apply in other
216 circumstances.

217
218 It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe any 219 patents or other property right claims or to contest validity of any 220 such claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting the 221 integrity of the free software distribution system, which is 222 implemented by public license practices. Many people have made
223 generous contributions to the wide range of software distributed 224 through that system in reliance on consistent application of that 225 system; it is up to the author/donor to decide if he or she is willing 226 to distribute software through any other system and a licensee cannot 227 impose that choice.

228
229 This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed to 230 be a consequence of the rest of this License.

231
232 8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted in 233 certain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, the 234 original copyright holder who places the Program under this License
235 may add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excluding 236 those countries, so that distribution is permitted only in or among 237 countries not thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporates
238 the limitation as if written in the body of this License.

239
240 9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versions 241 of the General Public License from time to time. Such new versions will 242 be similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail to 243 address new problems or concerns.

244
245 Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Program
246 specifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "any 247 later version", you have the option of following the terms and conditions

248 either of that version or of any later version published by the Free
249 Software Foundation. If the Program does not specify a version number of 250 this License, you may choose any version ever published by the Free Software
251 Foundation.
252

253 10. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other free
254 programs whose distribution conditions are different, write to the author
255 to ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by the Free
256 Software Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; we sometimes 257 make exceptions for this. Our decision will be guided by the two goals 258 of preserving the free status of all derivatives of our free software and 259 of promoting the sharing and reuse of software generally.
260

261 NO WARRANTY
262

263 11. BECAUSE THE PROGRAM IS LICENSED FREE OF CHARGE, THERE IS NO WARRANTY
264 FOR THE PROGRAM, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. EXCEPT WHEN 265 OTHERWISE STATED IN WRITING THE COPYRIGHT HOLDERS AND/OR OTHER PARTIES
266 PROVIDE THE PROGRAM "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESSED 267 OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF 268 MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. THE ENTIRE RISK AS 269 TO THE QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE OF THE PROGRAM IS WITH YOU. SHOULD THE 270 PROGRAM PROVE DEFECTIVE, YOU ASSUME THE COST OF ALL NECESSARY SERVICING, 271 REPAIR OR CORRECTION.
272

273 12. IN NO EVENT UNLESS REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW OR AGREED TO IN WRITING
274 WILL ANY COPYRIGHT HOLDER, OR ANY OTHER PARTY WHO MAY MODIFY AND/OR 275 REDISTRIBUTE THE PROGRAM AS PERMITTED ABOVE, BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR DAMAGES, 276 INCLUDING ANY GENERAL, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING 277 OUT OF THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE PROGRAM (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED
278 TO LOSS OF DATA OR DATA BEING RENDERED INACCURATE OR LOSSES SUSTAINED BY 279 YOU OR THIRD PARTIES OR A FAILURE OF THE PROGRAM TO OPERATE WITH ANY OTHER 280 PROGRAMS), EVEN IF SUCH HOLDER OR OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE 281 POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.
282

283 END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS
284

285 How to Apply These Terms to Your New Programs
286

287 If you develop a new program, and you want it to be of the greatest 288 possible use to the public, the best way to achieve this is to make it
289 free software which everyone can redistribute and change under these terms.
290

291 To do so, attach the following notices to the program. It is safest
292 to attach them to the start of each source file to most effectively
293 convey the exclusion of warranty; and each file should have at least 294 the "copyright" line and a pointer to where the full notice is found.
295

296 <one line to give the program's name and a brief idea of what it does.>
297 Copyright (C) <year> <name of author>
298

299 This program is free software; you can redistribute it and/or modify
300 it under the terms of the GNU General Public License version 2
301 as published by the Free Software Foundation.
302

303 This program is distributed in the hope that it will be useful,
304 but WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY; without even the implied warranty of 305 MERCHANTABILITY or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. See the 306 GNU General Public License for more details.
307

308 You should have received a copy of the GNU General Public License along
309 with this program; if not, write to the Free Software Foundation, Inc.,
310 51 Franklin Street, Fifth Floor, Boston, MA 02110-1301 USA.
311

312 Also add information on how to contact you by electronic and paper mail.

314 If the program is interactive, make it output a short notice like this 315 when it starts in an interactive mode:
316
317     Gnomovision version 69, Copyright (C) year name of author
318     Gnomovision comes with ABSOLUTELY NO WARRANTY; for details type `show w'.
319     This is free software, and you are welcome to redistribute it
320     under certain conditions; type `show c' for details.
321
322 The hypothetical commands `show w' and `show c' should show the appropriate
323 parts of the General Public License.  Of course, the commands you use may 324 be called something other than `show w' and `show c'; they could even be 325 mouse-clicks or menu items--whatever suits your program.
326
327 You should also get your employer (if you work as a programmer) or your 328 school, if any, to sign a "copyright disclaimer" for the program, if 329 necessary.  Here is a sample; alter the names:
330
331     Yoyodyne, Inc., hereby disclaims all copyright interest in the program
332     `Gnomovision' (which makes passes at compilers) written by James Hacker.
333
334     <signature of Ty Coon>, 1 April 1989
335     Ty Coon, President of Vice
336
337 This General Public License does not permit incorporating your program into 338 proprietary programs.  If your program is a subroutine library, you may 339 consider it more useful to permit linking proprietary applications with the 340 library.  If this is what you want to do, use the GNU Lesser General
341 Public License instead of this License.
